

Lovers Gotta Cry

The Flamingos

(Wah ooh, wah ooh, wah ooh, wah ooh)

Lovers gotta cry
Once in a while, my baby
So don't you be ashamed to cry

Love's a little pain
A little walking in the rain
A tear that sometimes gets in your eye, whoa

Lovers gotta cry
Once in a while, baby
And sometimes they don't know why

But for every tear that's shed
There's a thousand smiles ahead
So maybe, go ahead and cry

The love lovers oh
Gotta cry baby
And sometimes oh they don't know why

But for every tear that's shed
There's a thousand smiles ahead
So maybe go ahead and cry
Cry cry cry
Cry cry
