

The Sinner (El Pecador)

The Flamingos

With remorse and regret, I stand before you
Please, forgive and forget
Dear, I implore you
Though I stand in the past
Darling, caress me
Give me love that will last
Love that will bless me

I'm not worthy, I know
But I've found courage to dare
Into heaven I go
With a fool's dream and a prayer

Sweet angel, be sweet
Take my heart there, at your feet
You could save me, if you gave me
Just one sign that you care
Be kind while I make this sad confession
In my soul, each mistake left its impression
So let's go, leave behind bitter resentment
In your arms, let me find peace and contentment...

I'm not worthy, I know
But I've found courage to dare
Into heaven I go
With a fool's dream and a prayer

Sweet angel, be sweet
Take my heart, there at your feet
You could save me, if you gave me
Just one sign that you care
