

Moves Too Quickly

The Flatliners

Curious now, I lie awake
Cannot believe the words you say
Can we just cut the shit and let it lay to waste
I don't know most someone else
They just may not've figured out
That every breath you take is being taken away

Put all your wrath back in place
Come on, just see this silently
Turn it out. Life it all just moves too quickly

Curious now, I lie awake
Cannot believe the words you say
Can we just cut the shit and let it lay to waste (to waste)

Put all your wrath back in place
Come on, just see this silently
Turn it out. Life it all just moves too quickly
Think of the time you faced. You're safe
If you just let it read the case
It doesn't last long. There's nothing really much to say
