The Flatliners

After you've outlived us all
Will your ugly pride keep you warm?
For the sun has long expired
Because you shone too bright and tall
Would the child you once were
Be inspired by you now?
Or has the bullshit spread so thick,
You've already let him down?

Ambition,
Cut it razor thin
[x2]

Would it sit and rot your stomach
Just to see what happened now?
Or are your politics too perfect
Too perfect to burn them down?
Lay there in the wake,
Because with your own words
You'll swim to your own grave

Ambition
Cut it razor thin
[x2]

Yeah!

Try and concentrate
On why your arrogance has befallen to a crushing fate

Ambition [x2]
