

Fast Lane

The Flower Kings

Try to see a new way! You say;
"Life can be a shortcut" and you will always speed for...
More is less in daylight! You fight;
living in the fast lane and you are never gonna see

The sunlight
Shines from a higher ground
Feel the lovelight
Taking place in the haze, of the sunshine

Tend to insight
Seize upon "here and now"
Trust what's given
Everyday make your way, in the sunshine

Try to see it my way! You say;
"Life can be a jackpot and I will always speed for..."
More is less in daylight! Insight; livin in the fast lane and you will never gonna see

Believers
smile when you aim for love
Be receiver
You can win, let it in, feel the sunshine

Free the spirit
Your mind will start glowing Go from wasteland believers will shine Freedom beggars can turn into angels
Rise from mazeland stay true to your heart
