

Lazy Monkey

The Flower Kings

I thought that I was out of my head
I'll find my way back into the egg
Screaming, dreaming a lie

I've got some flowers back in the shed
Just lazy like a monkey in bed
I'm greedy, needy as hell

I'm living but I thought I was dead
I can't remember all that was said

I thought I was a captain named Dick
I thought I was back home in my wreck
Screaming and dreaming the high

I thought I was a fireman on ice
I thought I was the biggest surprise
Swirling, whirling about

I thought that I was out of my head
I'll find my way back into the egg
Screaming, dreaming
