

Insinuation

The Folk Implosion

Commit an act of memory
Knuckle down or buckle under
Sing part of the scream, believe
Cut it down in the mouth of drama

Another break in the pattern
Another fight for the flashlight
Tick tock on a broken clock
I'll be headed for midnight

Insinuation really makes it happen
And your opinion is a nice surprise
Tongue-tied, get dignified
Open my pride, find a map inside
Find a break in the pattern
Take your time to relax

Commit this act to memory
Sing part of the scream, believe
Knuckle down, don't buckle under
Cut it down in the mouth of drama

Insinuation really makes it happen
And your opinion is a nice surprise

But you're early for the Armageddon
If all we know and ever memorize
Lives on

This battle magnified
Perfect sized
There's no problem
Offer you a ride, but the engine died
Another break in the pattern

Insinuation really makes it happen
And your opinion opened up my eyes
It kept me itching with the contradiction
That all we know and never memorize
Lives on

Insinuation really makes it happen
(Lives on, lives on)
And your opinion is a nice surprise
(Lives on, lives on)
But you're early for the Armageddon
(Lives on, lives on)
If all we know and ever memorize
(Lives on, lives on)
Lives on, lives on
