The Format

i lost my memory in a cab back in the city its somewhere off of lexington just somethin that the east coast does to me makes me forget who i am so cmon and hold me, dont put out the lights i wanna see that look in your eyes i know tho lately ive been out of your sight being here has never felt so right im falling in love with you balloons or no balloons so its time i forget the past and just learn to love what i have cause i love waking up to your laugh theres something about the midwest honey oh it makes me miss you more then life could be the trees that stand alone in the fields they remind me every coupla miles id love to stop our lives, stop everything just so we could move far away and live alone together with the sweat of the summer with the chill of the cold winter air

more reasons then 22

wont you put it in drive? cmon and get me back home ill spend the rest of my life with only you by my side
