

Be Free

The Four Owls

We just wanna be free
Free, free, free, free
Yo

Freedom of speech, freedom of expression
If you can't free your mind, you might not see the message
Breathe easy, meditate, see the lesson
Progress into another phase, but keep the essence
Not gettin' caught within the indecision
Followin' the innervisions, overcome the limitations
A lot to take into consideration
Like the years spent writin' down in the basement
Hate to see us win? Oh, well, commiseration
Break limitations
Quick escapes from twisted mazes
Did we make it back home and leave part of us there?
It was unfair, felt like a shit fun fair
We take back control
Remotely send messages, you pay back his code
I see him slippin', let the Devil in, they're reveling
The madness that's never been established

Yeah, the rain set to downpour
Can't even remember what I come for, on tour
Fans say they want more
Lookin' washed up, now he's unsure
Caught up by the love that was once pure
It's the worst freedom, something that you earn or you believe in
I guess the essence of it's still breathin'
As long as I be dreamin'
Visualize it and it comes to bein'
Never estimate the way it come to see 'em
Can't perceive it when it's needed
Caught up in the mix, stay, half of you can leave it
You can read the signs, don't believe it
People talk a lot and never mean it
Only got one life, so try and free it
Give me twenty-four hours, all I'm needin'
I change your whole life from this evening
You were thinkin' 'bout leavin'
I would switch it up before you grieve him
Regret and all the times you missed out for no reason

Be free
It's all I ever really wanted us to be
Take a moment, let us make a memory
Escape the pain and find the freedom in your dreams
You hold the power in your soul, so let it be
Free
It's all I ever really wanted us to be
Take a moment, let us make a memory
Escape the pain and find the freedom in your dreams

Yo, yo, something like a state of mind
Or a way of bein'
But when you're trapped, there ain't a thing you're seein'
They tell you, "Free your mind"

But might not know a thing their speakin'
'Cause when they're full of shit, you're bound to see a bit leakin'
You got to go for, oh shit, 'cause no one can stop you
When you get in the zone
A couple artists' heads swellin', get a slap to the dome
Control your ego
I know it's hard when your reach
Reaches couple hundred-thousand people
Ain't a world away from anxiousness and self hatred
Concerned with looks and words that come from other people's faces
A sense of freedom has no cost, you've already paid it
So wake up, don't get stuck in stasis
While you're rollin' with the punches, you can roll with the bass licks
Kick back, too many people stuck in the Matrix
I think back to times we'd spit till the tape clicks
Half baked shit, man, I wish I could listen to it now

My work has taken over my life
Sit in my free time, I just wanna chill with the wife
But still then, I'm thinkin' 'bout the hustle and grind
Deep down, it's not right if you're not one of those guys
That gotta reflect, take a step back and surmise
Delegate more toss and be free of the strife
So I work with DMT, stay escapin' this life
Get faced to my fears, I can't face 'em in the night
So I face them in the evening and feel better inside
Gets the patterns of escapism stuck in my stride
All this hard work I've done, I'm just tryna provide
For my unborn child, I love you more than I can write
When I visualize the future, the sun is shinin' bright
Time is of the essence, so I'm present when I rhyme
I guess I'll truly be free when I come to die
But until that day comes, I'll cherish every part of life

Be free
It's all I ever really wanted us to be
Take a moment, let us make a memory
Escape the pain and find the freedom in your dreams
You hold the power in your soul, so let it be
Free
It's all I ever really wanted us to be
Take a moment, let us make a memory
Escape the pain and find the freedom in your dreams
You hold the power in your soul, so let it be

Free
Find freedom, freedom
Find freedom, freedom
