

The Setting Sun

The Four Seasons

Setting sun, setting sun

Won't you tell me why (Tell me why)
Why are you leaving
Pity me (Pity me)
My heart is breathing
The strings that tied my dreams
Have been undone
Now I'm all alone like the setting sun

Setting sun, setting sun

Everyone taught me right from the start
I wasn't loved but you played the part

I just can't go on (Can't go on)
Go on without you
I still see your face (See your face)
and dream about you
The strings that tied my dreams have been undone
Now I'm all alone like the setting sun

Setting sun, setting sun

The strings that tied my dream have been undone
Now I'm all alone like the setting sun

Setting sun, setting sun

Setting sun, setting sun

Setting sun, setting sun
