it's a road you've come upon

I can't help you if you want to Down here nothing gets a chance It's a threat that's real enough

We can burn this bridge or stay here

Making so sure that

A D A

I can return just to see it from your side again

It's a word you never learned I don't really see a way clear

In the sureness of time
And our words will repeat now forever again

So don't you rush it

Hmi G D

And hold your head up high right through the doubt

A G

Cause its just a matter of time

3. I don't have a choice in this It's a road I've come upon You can join us if you want to Always never seems to work it's a word we never learned time will be the judge of all here

- R: This might take a while to figure out now
So don't you rush it and hold you're head up high right through the doubt now

cause its just a matter of time

*: You've been running so fast it's the seven day mile has you torn in-between here and running away

*: Its line you've been wanting it's your time
it's the seven day mile
has you torn in-between here and never again never again
