

Show Me The Quiet Air

The Franklin Electric

Show me the quiet air
A face that fades without a worry or care
Show me a pioneer
Who tells a story they've been hiding for so long
Won't you show me another sign
My third eye's gone blind and I seek deep to find
Won't you show me

She told me once again
Now let it pass me by and I keep holding on to her words
Show me an honest friend
Who tells me all the truths I need to learn about giving in Control me like a puppet on a string
Let me a while out inside my soul until I break it
Hold me when I'm empty and you're full
After that steam train keeps coming 'round and knocking me down

Might I say, at this time you're all I need
And now I see, it's just me in my mind

You are the one that I've been looking for
You are the one that I've been looking for
You are the one, I've been looking for

Just show me the quiet air
A face that fades without a worry or care
