

I need somebody to drive me back home
It's a grand vacation but I feel alone
I told you, honey it's bringing me down
And I'm crying my eyes out all over this town

I need nobody but you in my mind
I need no water, slowing down time
I got no reason to keep it away

We found an island that's better than these
In the ugliest ocean, I've ever seen
Shut me up, call me stupid, and leave me to say
I know I keep it inside of my brain

I know you're tired of picking a shade
I can't control it, it's giving me pain
I want that ticket to make it alright
It's true, forget it, just say that I'm fine
I know you, honey you shouldn't be mad
All this confusion is making me sad
You got me begging, and that's all there is

Oh, yeah
I got something for you baby
Oh, yeah
And I'm going fucking crazy
Oh, yeah
And I got it for you baby
Oh, yeah
