

Ghost

The Frights

Stop talking, you're looking at my face
Tell him to leave, I want you to stay
You know
You're just a ghost

I saw you looking at the ground
Trying to see what you lost and you found
You know
You're just a ghost

Everybody
Let's do a toast
You're just a ghost

I got you looking at my head
I wanna tell you but you're already red
[?]

He's lying, he's tearing up the world
Want you for me, he wants my girl
He knows
You're just a ghost

Everybody
Let's do a toast
You're just a ghost

Everybody
Let's do a toast
You're just a ghost

Everybody
Let's do a toast
You're just a ghost
