

Don't B Afraid

The Frogs

don't b afraid, there's nothing here 2 harm you don't b ashamed, there's nothing there to alarm you don't run away
don't b afraid, 'cause your heart won't harm you i was afraid
now i know the moral
don't run away
crack, bend, break
all these things your heart will do cry, beg, bleed
do these things your heart will lose monsters and ghosts
don't exist, i assure you don't grab you coat
don't resist, embrace them
don't run away
