

Clear Path

The Front Bottoms

I head back to your apartment
The only place I ever felt cool
I drive around the parking lot
I swim in the community pool

I try so hard to find the feeling
I think I felt so long ago
I try so hard to find the feeling
I think I felt so long ago

Basically
All I need
Is a clear path
Yeah a clear path

On my back and blowing bubbles
In my mind I try to save them
Memories, things I refer to
Only by nicknames you gave them

I try so hard to find the feeling
I think I felt so long ago
I try so hard to find the feeling
One I'm pretty sure I know

Basically
All I need
Is a clear path
Yeah a clear path

Basically
All I need
Is a clear path
Yeah a clear path

You are abandoning you
I am abandoning me
Basically all we need
Is a clear path

Part of me
Can't get free
Doing the same things
Oh we're doing the same things

Basically
All I need
Is a clear path
Yeah a clear path

You are abandoning you
I am abandoning me
Basically all we need
Is a clear path
