

Everyone Blooms

The Front Bottoms

Everyone blooms in their own time
Some far ahead, some far behind
So wherever you are, don't worry, you're gonna be fine, fine, fine
'Cause everyone blooms in their own time

Sometimes we talk about what it might take
Skills to wrap the gift and my hands cut the cake
Sometimes we talk about what it might take
Skills to pay the bills and my mouth get a taste

I have to concentrate, keep it warm
Taking up space and blocking doors
Sometimes we talk, it's a total mistake
Just a picture of us looks so good it feels fake
Just a picture of us looks so good it feels fake

Everyone blooms in their own time
Some far ahead, some far behind
So wherever you are, don't worry, you're gonna be fine, fine, fine
'Cause everyone blooms in their own time

Oh, in their own time

Well, I heard that you want all of me
And I heard that you'd do anything
You can take what's left of me
Fill a garbage bag before you leave

I have to meditate, staying strong
Smoke's filling up space, no fire alarm
Sometimes we talk, it's a total mistake
Just the memories of us feel so real, must be fake
Echoed memories of us feel so real, must be fake

Everyone blooms in their own time (Late Bloomer)
Some far ahead, some far behind
So wherever you are, don't worry, you're gonna be fine, fine, fine
Everyone blooms in their own time

Their own time
Their own time

Both of us could give up
Give up and float backwards
Attitude and outlook
Realize that it matters
And I know that no news
No news is good news
But that always felt backwards
And I still haven't heard from you
Attitude and outlook
Realize that it matters
Both of us could give up
Give up and float backwards
Yeah I know that no news
No news is good news
But that always felt backwards

And I still haven't heard from you
My attitude, my outlook
I realize now it matters
My attitude, my outlook
I realize now it matters
Yeah I know that no news
No news is good news
I realize now it matters
And I still haven't heard from you

Everyone blooms in their own time
Some far ahead, some far behind
So wherever you are, don't worry, you're gonna be fine, fine, fine
Gonna be fine, fine, fine
Gonna be fine, fine, fine
'Cause everyone blooms in their own time
