

I Love You but I've Chosen Synthesizers

The Frozen Autumn

Had it before, cold love at sunset
I've seen it before, ill-grounded silence
Heard that before, not a promise,
So cynical, being cut-off like an unwanted frequency
In the light of worn-out candles
Are you sur I was just no the right one you where looking for?
Well, itcan be true, I love you but I've chosen synthetizers!!
The endless waves, voltage parades
Always!!!
Been told it all: "Primadonna!"
Heard that before: "I had just fear!"

"Fear of what?" "The loving kind!"
So I prefer 128 shades of MIDI
Than this same old story
No, you could not take a chance on this displaced soul
Lost in circuitries, I love you but I've chosen Synthetizer!!!
A virtual patch, the high resonance
Always!
Change setting and parameters, get new sound
Is that something we could have well shared?
Pride kills more lives than war does
The ice wall between us will stay unchanged.
