Jenny Jones (leave The Death Rock Kids Alone)

The Gadjits

My teen needs a makeover.
What will the neighbors think?
She just can't get off on it,
Dresses so gothik.
Justice must not be blind.
Blindfolded and crosseyed.

Leave the poor girl alone.
Like it's not hard enough
In a world full of drones.
Standing up for yourself
Instead of letting dogs lie,
We're gonna throw her to them.
The wolves in the audience
Are screened for intolerance.

The gears in their heads
Turning second reducing
The problems of the world.
The problems of one girl
To parental control.
Jenny Jones - leave the death-rock kids alone!!!!
Jenny Jones - leave the death-rock kids alone!!!!

(chorus)
