

Lovebirds

The Game

I am one with the moon, the 54th platoon
Red beam coming soon, straight outta the blue lagoon
Only seat that blows in the winter, the placenta
The ganja, the marijuana, gives me lifted like the steam, the s teaming saunas
So I ponder, mickie dees or benihanas
The other day I've seen my mama, dipping in mi ganja
I said what are you doing? She blamed Obama Presidential Rolexes, presidential sweets all night swisher
It's kinda like a picture with no paint, blank
Like the mind of a dead man
And bitches are sweating me like Allen Iverson's headband
Drip after drip, I dropped the phantoms hot, not Mariah
But I carry fire, my cannon is hot
As a California summer on no ac on a Hummer
This is game, spitting flames with Andre 3000 numbers

Love birds, love birds me and my rose phantom are Love birds, love birds, me and my marijuana are
Love birds, love birds, me and the palm trees are love birds
Love birds, love birds, me and the Cadillac are Love birds, love birds, me and the ATL are
Love birds, love birds, me and my microphone are love birds

I introduce the ATLiens to your smelling it
Chronic bushes that are larger than African elephants
Relevant is my kush yours is not
So stop pretending it's from a Californian spot
I am so high, it would take Dwight Howard to snatch me out of t he sky
I am flying and your career dying
I should get my best khaki suit out of the closet and put the i ron to it
Reminiscing back when I didn't have no khaki suit to cruise on Levi's and Patrick Ewing's
Kept it moving, now I ball like Patrick Ewing
Junior, ask Dre before he met me I was sicker than a tumor
And I had a Glock that threw Bullets like boomer
Had niggas running faster they're running backs
On an Oklahoma Sooners, no sooner I said it
I was sweated by my baby mama, the first one, drama

Love birds, love birds me and my rose phantom are
Love birds, love birds, me and my marijuana are
Love birds, love birds, me and the palm trees are love birds
Love birds, love birds, me and the Cadillac are
Love birds, love birds, me and the ATL are
Love birds, love birds, me and my microphone are love birds
