Leaves

The Gathering

I close your eyes with my mouth Now you don't see anything But you feel my breath all over I can feel you too

Although I don't really know you I don't really care

Cry with me make my day
Tomorrow all will be gone
All the sweetness and all the fun
No, I don't wanna know...

Although I don't really know you I don't really care

Now that you're gone I don't know How to really feel inside Baring the hope to see you again Guess I never will

Although I don't really know you Yes, I really care
