

Weightless

The Gathering

Who's gonna love you like I do?
I will until the end and way beyond

Who will heal like I do
When the pouring rain will drown you

You're on your way to somewhere
And where is the thin thin air that you need

And who's gonna care for you
When you're lost and cold and all alone

Who's gonna love you like I do?
I will until the end and way beyond

I see it in your eyes
This is the last goodbye
You stare into the sky
And let your soul fly

I see it in your eyes
This is the last goodbye
I'm breaking, I'm falling
You rest your eyes a while
The strength it takes to provide
I'm breaking, I'm falling
There is no one to blame
That nature's life will fade
I'm breaking, I'm falling
There is no one to blame
That nature's life will fade
I'm breaking, I'm falling
I'm breaking, I'm falling
