

When We Fall

The Gathering

Can you hear me
Can you hear me

The oceans of our sorrow
And tears we've shed
The colors of new seasons
We wander everywhere
Where no one ever wandered
We find our ways
Through cloudless days of sunlight
We rise, go on, then shine

Across the worlds we hide
Between divided lands and shores we glide
The distance to our visions of tomorrow
Drawing near
Drawing near

When we fall, when we fall
When we fall, when we fall
Can't you see it's tearing me apart
When we fall, when we fall
Can you hear me

The land of dreams we found
Direct descendant of our gods recrowned
As the sunset our conquest disillusioned
Pale and grey
Pale and grey

The oceans of our sorrow
And tears we've shed
The colors of new seasons
We wander everywhere

When we fall, when we fall
Can you hear me
When we fall, when we fall
Can you hear me
Can't you see it's tearing me apart
Can you hear me
When we fall, when we fall
Can you hear me
