

Tears Of Repentance

The Generators

Just a spark and a little fuel,
A touch of rage, to push the message through.
The ugly truth, is gonna rear its head again

This old house is going to burn right down
Nothing will be left but hollow ground.
Let the past smolder with the embers tonight

All they'll be is charred remains
Not a fragment of yesterday,
Oh, only ashes swept away to the sky

I have no tears of repentance
No change of mind or heart
I have no forgiveness
Nothing to feel sorry for

Blank stare, eyes of red
Hanging around like a powder keg
Just waiting now to go off
Who ever said hate is rational?
When that's the only thing that's tangible
I'm just out here now to settle a score

All they'll be is charred remains
Not a fragment of yesterday,
Oh, only ashes swept away to the sky

I have no tears of repentance
No change of mind or heart
I have no forgiveness
Just here to settle a score
