

Fall From Grace

The Get Up Kids

it rains and pours in twos
i wonder if i'll come home no strength left to battle you run to the open arms
of anyone
of anyone
i'm watching you fall from grace breaking a heart of gold don't ever try saving face run with your heart of stone
of anyone
of anyone
don't keep waiting up for me don't keep hoping i'll come home
