

Waking Up Alone

The Get Up Kids

I can't stop thinking that there was something that I needed to do

You can't get mad at me, when my body doesn't work the way my brain asked it to

So good on ya
You thought I forgot her
I just need a reminder
Of what you do to me

Now everything that's anything is fine
No it never gets easier waking up alone
Now my sentimental heart is growing cold

Oh there I go again, I would hate it if I ruined the surprise
I get myself in trouble for cold stares, I'd have to say that you win the prize
I need to know what you do to me

Now everything that's anything is fine
No it never gets easier, waking up alone
Now my sentimental heart is growing cold
No it never gets easier, I guess I should have known
That you can't stop what is out of your control
No you can't stop what you don't know

Oh c'est la vie, mon ami, we never have to apologize for the lies that we use to survive
Is it me or do we have to make an excuse every time that we get to this point in our life
Oh c'est la vie, mon ami, we never have to apologize for the lies that we use to survive
Is it me or do we have to make an excuse every time we get to this point

No it never gets easier waking up alone
Now my sentimental heart is growing cold
No it never gets easier, I guess I should have known
That you can't stop what is out of your control

No it never gets easier waking up alone
Now my sentimental heart is growing cold
No it never gets easier, I guess I should have known
That you can't stop what is out of your control
