

Inherent Youth

The Ghost Inside

Tonight's my night. Unlike any others.
I've never felt this alive.
So far away is death and decay,
I won't age a day, it's my time to shine

I'll live for today knowing that tomorrow might never come.
But I'm content knowing I've made the most of the days, most just piss away.

Maybe someday I'll be something more.
Something bigger than this.
Maybe someday I'll be someone, someone important

Tonight's our night, not like anyone else's, I've never been so proud.
So far ahead, are the things we dread, I'll live in this moment
Nowhere but here. No one but us.

Days will pass and nights will come and go,
I'm proud of all the things I've done.

Maybe someday I'll be something more.
Something bigger than this.
Maybe someday I'll be someone, someone important

Why won't the world just see that there is nothing wrong with me?
Why can't the world just see that there is nothing wrong with us?

Never stopping to see, what we all see.
Never striving to be, what all we dream for ourselves
