

Pressure Point

The Ghost Inside

Don't pretend that we're in this together
There are answers to these questions that you don't wanna know
The truth (the truth) doesn't make it better
Some things are better left alone

Misery doesn't love company
And I refuse to be defined by suffering

Talking tragedy like a broken record
How many times must I relive this hell?
Are you really by my side or do you just want another story to tell?

Fuck this fake sympathy
You're just a snake in disguise
Fuck this fake sympathy
You're everything I despise

Disappear
I don't know what comes next but I know what's best for me
Without you here
Disappear
Deeply marked by life but these scars will finally heal
When you disappear
No future in the past and I can't move forward
If you're pulling me back
Face to face with my fears
They all will disappear

(Disappear)

The reality is you only get what you give
But you won't listen to a word I say
Make no mistake you could never relate
You weren't there that day
I can't keep it together - I'm about to break

Fuck this fake sympathy
You're just a snake in disguise
Fuck this fake sympathy
You're everything I despise

Disappear
I don't know what comes next but I know what's best for me
Without you here
Disappear
Deeply marked by life but these scars will finally heal
When you disappear
No future in the past and I can't move forward
If you're pulling me back
Face to face with my fears
They all will disappear
All will disappear

(Disappear)

How can I move forward if you're pulling me back?
How can I move forward if you're pulling me back?

I looked death in the eyes
I've come too far
So now I have to cut you out
Cut you out like the leech that you are

Cut!

I looked death in the eyes
I've come too far
So now I have to cut you out
Like the leech that you are
