

Secret

The Ghost Inside

No escape
Doesn't matter that I've changed
'Cause you still see me the same
Open your eyes, that's how the past dies

Don't look at me like I am the problem
When we both know who's stoking the flames
I've been burned too many times before, so tell me, who's to blame?

I'll tell you a secret
I've outgrown everyone you know
But you won't believe it
'Cause all the time you're sleeping, I've been dreaming

No escape
From a never-ending haze
You're still blinded by the rage
Open your mind, leave the past behind

Pay attention to what's right in the wrong
You never listen when I yell, so

I'll tell you a secret
I've outgrown everyone you know
But you won't believe it
'Cause all the time you're sleeping, I've been dreaming

I've been burned too many times before
So tell me, who's to blame?

I'll tell you a secret
I've outgrown everyone you know
But you won't believe it
'Cause all the time you're sleeping, I've been dreaming
I'll tell you a secret

I'll tell you a secret
'Cause all the time you're sleeping, I've been dreaming
