

Guess Why

The Gift

Don't know why, I guess why, I don't know why, because you never really really told me Don't know why,
I guess why, yes I know why, because I've spend my all life to know you, Why do you feel bad now that I'm loving you? Goodbye... it's not the time to put me inside of you, outside of you, and love will be the same...
