

Pretending

The Gladiators

I don't love you anymore
I don't need you anymore
I don't love you anymore

No use, you're just pretending Nothing you do
will make me change my mind, (change my mind)
How could you, be so cruel... wanting to see me, fall to the bottomless pit, Noone could have told me that it would work like this, (work li ke this)
How can, you tell me now that it won't happen again,
No use for crawling on your bended knee, you've hurt my pride, (my pride),
