

Caroline

The Glorious Sons

Somehow this feels just right
I wish I could feel it every night
We'll tilt the room dim light
I think I hear my groove
I could tell the way shuffling in their shoes
They say there's room for two
Oh, Caroline!
Oh, Caroline!

I'm thinking on your ground
I could tell the way you're looking with those eyes
I haven't seen it in some time
This tight rope on my mind
Our bounce's getting better every night
This drink is my disguise
Oh, Caroline
I know I crossed the line
Oh, Caroline

Been here once or twice before
Serious kinda thing
The way you're moving back & forth
As fist on my wedding ring
But I don't know where I'm going
And sometimes, it's better of not knowing
Oh, Caroline...
