

Waking The Jetstream

The Go! Team

I don't know if the day is here
But the galaxy knew
I don't know if it's getting here
But I think that you do

Waiting for something to arrive
Waking the Jetstream
Somehow, somehow, we organize
Waking the Jetstream

Carry on, say it every day
Round again, in the only way

All the people who never try
All the people who do
Everyone on the morning train
Are they feeling it too?

It's just a reason to move on
Waking the country
Somehow, somehow, we carry on
Making the country

Come around, do it everyday
Here again, in the only way

Honey, all, all we ever do
Ah, all we ever knew

Getting together
Sitting on the shelf
Hitting on nothing
Hang on yourself

Whoa

Does the world really have to know
Every word that we say?
Does the world really carry on
If they take it away?

This is the reason to survive
Waking the Jetstream
Take my whole life to realize
Waking the Jetstream

Carry on, say it every day
Round again, in the only way

Honey, all, all we ever do
Ah, all we ever knew

Getting together
Sitting on the shelf
Hitting on nothing

Whoa, whoa, whoa
