

Unlock My Heart

The Good Natured

I remember when you used to sing a sweet melody,
now a distant memory
I can see the ending to this love story, love

Oh, when we turn the page we'll find
The way your mind is wondering again
To a place where I can't really find
Wherever you are, please wait for me there

Unlock my heart for it is caged
And now happiness turns to misery
I can be the ending to this love story, love

Oh, when we turn the page we'll find
The way your mind is wondering again
To a place where I can't really find
Wherever you are, please wait for me there

Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart

Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart

Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart

When we turn the page we'll find
The way your mind is wondering again
To a place where I can't really find
Wherever you are, please wait for me there

Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart

Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart

Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
Unlock my heart
