The Gourds

saw this magnanimous bottom feeder look up at me thought pond scum sucked 'til i had a bowl of rat soup inside o f me well, it's pretty good said this cat named SneezeGuard couldn't ever crowd his pan always got a proper sear on just to find out that easily led could actually steer one a little more punch to wash this down a little more frequency in our round in the heat on an island garbage all around me had the entire off ramp 'til the Diaz brothers found me i drained me a few made me my day's worth topped off my cart i'm rolling for the can bank yeah to make a better haul left my cardboard sign blank little more coin for my cans today little less load on my case today now i'm taking it home out on my tectonic plates crashed in a pyramid and claimed squatters rights shared a tomb with a fella wouldn't shut up 'bout a girl named Isis
had to blend with tourists when they came in the a.m. relocated to the new wing absconding with my hot plate little more time marginalized a little less stink in everybody's eye
