

Misunderstanding

The Grapes Of Wrath

So, Sorry isn't much
It doesn't do the trick
Trying to find who's wrong
It doesn't matter much

I try to hold out my hands
Praying that you'll take
Trust in my love
Misunderstanding

So, You don't want to talk
You want to turn your back
Anger's just a mask
I'll be there when it cracks

I try to hold out my hands
Praying that you'll take
Trust in my love
Misunderstanding

So, Sorry isn't much
I say it anyway
Hoping in our hearts
Somethings going to change

I try to hold out my hands
Praying that you'll take
Trust in my love
