Bella Linda

The Grass Roots

Bella Linda, try and understand Bella Linda, I'm doin' all I can Bella Linda, I'm only what I am

It's so hard for me to say The things I really feel If I could I'd chase away The pain your eyes reveal The pain your eyes reveal From foolish things I've done The times that I let you down And I'll never change, believe me I try If you go away, you know that I'll die Oh I love you, please don't say goodbye

Bella Linda, try and understand Bella Linda, I'm doin' all I can Bella Linda, I'm only what I am

We've had bad times Through the years And though I've made you cry Think of me through tender tears And try to close your eyes And try to close your eyes To thoughtless things I do The dreams that don't come true 'Cause I'll never change, believe me I try If you go away, you know that I'll die Oh I need you, please don't say goodbye

Bella Linda, try and understand Bella Linda, I'm doin' all I can Bella Linda, I'm only what I am

Bella Linda, try and understand Bella Linda, I'm doin' all I can Bella Linda, I'm only what I am
