

I'm Livin' For You Girl

The Grass Roots

It's a dark and lonely moment
It's a day I'll never forget, now
I caught you leavin' early this mornin'
I've got to make you stay somehow

So please, I'm livin' for you, girl
Don't tear it apart, don't leave me alone
I'd give all for you, girl
So don't break my heart, come on back home

Walkin' thinkin' you've got to come back
It's been an hour, seems like a year
I need you, baby, so close beside me
Your gentle touch will stop these tears

So please, I'm livin' for you, girl
Don't tear it apart, don't leave me alone
I'd give all for you, girl
So don't break my heart, come on back home

Ah, come on back home
I need you, baby
I need you, come on back home

It's a dark and lonely moment
It's a day I'll never forget, now

I caught you leavin' early this mornin'
I've got to make you stay somehow

So please, I'm livin' for you, girl
Don't tear it apart, don't leave me alone
I'd give all for you, girl
So don't break my heart, come on back home

I'm livin' for you, girl
Don't tear it apart, don't leave me alone
I'd give all for you, girl
So don't break my heart, come on back home...
