

Won't You See Me

The Grass Roots

If you've ever walked the empty streets alone before
And if you've seen a man sitting quietly along the shore

Then you've seen me
Then you've seen me
And I-I-I've been watching you too
And wondering who

I've been thinking about you
Wanting to know for sure
I hope it's not an illusion I'm seein'
I hope you are who I thought you were

You walk above the stones on a mis-covered carpet of dawn
And when I reach the spot I thought you were, I'd finally find you're gone

Won't you see me
Won't you see me
'Cause I-I-I've been hoping that you've Been watching me, too

I've been thinking about you
Wanting to know for sure
I hope it's not an illusion I'm seein'
I hope you are who I thought you were

I know now that you are merely mist, you're just a dream (you'r e just a dream)
And I hope that things aren't as bad as they seem to be (seems to me, yeah...)

I've been thinking about you
Wanting to know for sure
I hope it's not an illusion I'm seein'
I hope you are who I thought you were
I've been thinking about you
Wanting to know for sure
I hope it's not an illusion I'm seein'
