

Have You Heard

The Gray Havens

Can you remember the seagull's cry?
Though have you heard it?
Where the waves break, I
Gotta get back
Someday, I

Lost for the moment
Broad fields of sky
And, oh, for the morning
It never shuts his eye
And I've gotta get back
Someday, I
Gotta get back, gotta get back

No, I never seem to catch it
The feeling where you're coming in, where you're coming from
No, I never see the water coming
Just the imprint of the wave left on the sand in the sun
No, I never seem to catch it
The feeling where you're coming in, where you're coming from
No, I never see the water coming

Someday, I
Someday, I gotta get back
Someday, I
