

I wanted to be somebody you need
But you had your freckles removed
That make you look like me

Don't know how you do it, living in ruin
Put yourself through it then you do it again

Is it just me or is it everybody
Sitting outside with their house on fire?
God, it's so cyclical
I'm getting sick of saving you
Is it just me or is it everybody?

If I don't, who will? Nobody ever did for me
It don't serve the body well to hate yourself at fifteen

Don't know how you do it, living in ruin
I would kill myself before I let you do it

Is it just me or is it everybody
Sitting outside with their house on fire?
God, it's so cyclical
I'm getting sick of saving ya
Is it just me or is it everybody?

I'll rip the doorframe
I'll call for days
I'm always waiting
I'm always

I'll rip the doorframe
I'll call for days
I'm always waiting
I'm always

I'll rip the doorframe
I'll call for days
I'm always waiting
I'm always

Don't know how you do it, living in ruin
Put yourself through it then you do it again

Is it just me or is it everybody
Sitting outside with their house on fire?
God, it's so cyclical. I'm getting sick of saving ya
Is it just me or is it everybody?

Is it just me or is it everybody
Is it just me or is it everybody
Is it just me or is it everybody
Is it just me or is it everybody

Is it just me or is it everybody
Is it just me or is it everybody
Is it just me or is it everybody
Is it just me or is it everybody
