

Average Man

The Growlers

Alright

I'm so mad I'm late again
Always lag and regret it in the end
My mouth is simple but it gets outta hand
My mind feeding about your average man
Don't want trouble, anything goes
I don't know how I get so low
Take off, get out of my head
Take off to the cool place there

I'm just an average man
Simpleton, no hooligan
I'm just a boy who has grown
Simple life is all I know, all I know

Take more, want more than what I got
To take my mind and tie it in a knot
Need more than I've got and I've been shot
Trying keep my cool but my head's a lot
Life gets heavy and back still
Just trying to keep up with the pack
Leave once more and won't look back
I'm too little for a race like that

I'm just an average man
Simpleton no hooligan
I'm just a boy who has grown
Simple life is all I know, all I know

I'm so mad I'm late again
Always lack everything in the end
My mouth is simple but it gets outta hand
My mind feeding about your average man

I'm just an average man
Simpleton no hooligan
I'm just a boy who has grown
Simple life is all I know, yeah all I know

I'm so mad I'm late again
Always lag and regret it in the end
My mouth is simple but it gets outta hand
My mind feeding about your average man

I'm just an average man
Simpleton no hooligan
I'm just a boy who has grown
Simple life is all I know
Yeah all I know
Well all I know
Yeah all I know
