

Spilling down with every splash
Never running out, never crash
Hold on to my hands of stone
I know that you're all alone
You know where to find me

Come call on me, your cornerstone
Fill me up with all your goals
I'll run with you, from pillar to post

I'm a Coinstar
Blinking in the shine of the moon
I'm a dreamer on a bender flaming out soon
I'm a Coinstar
Leching on maternal brew
I'm a sucker just like you

Walk into the water friend
Let it lift you up and be cleansed
If you're ever gonna flow
Stop worrying
Just let go

I'm a Coinstar
Blinking in the shine of the moon
I'm a dreamer on a bender running out soon
I'm a Coinstar
Leching on maternal brew
'Cus I'm a sucker just like you

I was just like you then
I am still a fool
I am on again and again
Faith is in a neighborly friend
Set them loose

I'm a Coinstar
Blinking in the shine of the moon
I'm a dreamer on a bender flaming out soon
I'm a Coinstar
Leching on maternal brew
I'm a sucker just like you
