

Natural Affair

The Growlers

Dysfunctional, a family none-the-less
Traditional with some modern twist
Unconventional is a sweeter tasting lie
Love is old and wild and will never die
Overload from everywhere you turn
Insatiable till your love is earned
Even heaviness is something that you learn
Love is old and wild and will always burn

Boys will be boys and get away with murder
Girls will rule the world, it's true
If the world is round
How come it's upside down?
I cannot be the only fool

You don't wanna be the matriarch
Mother nature's a bitch
She don't even care

Every loner knows how green the grass will grow
So hard to tell when you are too close
You're a hardened soul and not a piece of clay
Only we can say when you're a piece of shhh

Boys will be boys and get away with murder
Girls should rule the world, it's true
If the world is round
How come it's upside down?
I cannot be the only fool

You don't wanna be the matriarch
Mother nature's a bitch
She don't care for you
Every family everywhere
Everyone's crazy, nothing seems fair
Every lover ends up recycled
But it's just a natural affair

Careful, love, what for you're wishing
Stretching out and keeping your style
Special ones, nothing is missing
Everything you need's in your smile

Careful, love, what for you're wishing
Stretching out and keeping your style
Special ones, nothing is missing
Everything you need's in your smile

You don't wanna be the matriarch
Mother nature's a bitch
She don't care for you
Every family everywhere
Everyone's crazy, nothing seems fair
Every lover ends up recycled
It's just a natural affair
Every lover ends up recycled
But it's just a natural affair
