

Wandering Eyes

The Growlers

I'll tell you I'll never leave you
If you believe me then it's your fault
So hear me clearly 'fore you hold me near
Before you hold me dear to your heart

These wandering eyes roll on the road
Not even I know where I'll go
These wandering eyes roll on the road
Not even I know where I'll go

I'll tell you I'll always be true
If I deceive you don't be alarmed
So hear me clearly 'fore you hold me near
Before you hold me dear to your heart

My wandering heart does what it wants
Not even I know who I'll love
My wandering heart does what it wants
Not even I know who I'll love

I'll tell you I'll never leave you
If you believe me then it's your fault
So hear me clearly 'fore you hold me near
Before you hold me dear to your heart

These wandering eyes roll on the road
Not even I know where I'll go
These wandering eyes roll on the road
Not even I know where I'll go
