

If You Don't Want Me

The Guess Who

I've been crying, I've been trying to forget you
And I still keep wonderin' what went wrong? Oh
I've been lonely, want you only for my lover
And I wanna be with you 'cause it's been so long

Hey, but if you don't want me
What can I say, girl?
I'll pack my things
And be on my way, girl
I'll think about you again some day
And I'll cry

I was hoping you would open up your heart
And I miss the magic of your lovin' ways, oh
I was hurtin', I was certain I was right
And I could prove it if you give it one more try

Hey, but if you don't want me
What can I say, girl?
I'll pack my things
And be on my way, girl
I'll think about you again some day
And I'll cry

If you knew what was goin' on in my heart
Baby, you'd run on right back to me
'Cause you're the only one I wanna
Hug and love and kiss until I die, oh

I've been crying, I've been trying to forget you
And I still keep wonderin' what went wrong? Oh
I've been lonely, want you only for my lover
And I wanna be with you 'cause it's been so long

Hey, but if you don't want me
What can I say, girl?
I'll pack my things
And be on my way, girl
I'll think about you again some day
And I'll cry

But if you don't want me
What can I say, girl?
I'll pack my things
And be on my way, girl
I'll think about you again some day
And I'll cry

But if you don't want me
What can I say, girl?
I'll pack my things
And be on my way, girl
I'll think about you again...
