

Sona Sona

The Guess Who

Sona Sona make the sunlight cry
Sona Sona never asking why
One love creates another someday
One heart relates to another its own way (hey, hey)
Like a child at play, please don't run away

I've heard tell of a house on a canyon
Terrace overlooks the sea
But I'm not ready, my hand's not steady
Where else should I be if I'm not busy dreamin'
Where else should I be

Sona Sona drift with time
Sona Sona take a look outside
One love relates to another someday
One heart can look at another its own strange way (hey, hey)
Like a child at play, please don't run away

I've heard tell of a house on a canyon
Terrace overlooks the sea
But I'm not ready, my hand's not steady
Where else should I be if I'm not busy dreamin'
Where else should I be
Sona, Sona
