

Forever Astray

The Halo Effect

Has it come to this
We reset to zero hour
A place of no return
Where truth is tied around our hands
Anxiety wild with rage

Wield the sword in anger
These are powers we cannot deny
We're disarmed by silence
In truth we are alone

What we ask from one another
And in honesty we're lost without
It's not the light, it's truly the fire
We are led forever astray

We get lost in our words
We look inside just to find ourselves out
The measure of vulnerable minds

Wield the sword in anger
These are powers we cannot deny

What we ask from one another
And in honesty we're lost without
It's not the light, it's truly the fire
We are led forever astray

Wield the sword in anger
These are powers we cannot deny
We're disarmed by silence
In truth we are alone

What we ask from one another
And in honesty we're lost without
It's not the light, it's truly the fire
We are led forever astray

It's not the light, it's truly the fire
We are led forever astray
