

The Needless End

The Halo Effect

We are helpless, as the world demands
It pulls us into the void
Our wild gaze turns the other way
To shield ourselves from the pain

I see failure
Through the eyes of time
Through the eyes of time

What in the distance
Brings us to resolve
Reveal the paradigm
That shifts and turns forevermore

Where is the fire
Where is the spark
In this final hour

We fight the constructs
And the asymmetry
Take out the virus at the core
Inside of this array
That holds us closer
And slowly grinds us further down

I see nothing
Through the eyes of time
We are silenced at every turn

Where is the fire
Where is the spark
In this final hour
Where's the fire
Where's the spark
In this silent hour
Where's the fire
In the dark
We have come to a needless end

What in our lives
Brought us to this point
This new direction
That shifts and turns forevermore

Where is the fire
Where is the spark
In this final hour
Where's the fire
Where's the spark
In this silent hour
Where's the fire
In the dark
We have come to a needless end
