

Right Through

The Happy Fits

Five-foot-two, I fell in love with you
Smaller than a stone, but still can break your bones
Still can break your bones
Well I believe it was because of you
Time was running and I did not know what to do
No, I didn't know what to do

But I followed you right through
And you showed me that it's true

Six-foot-two, I fell in love with you
Taller than an oak tree, but you still can break free
No, you cannot break free
Well I believe it was because of you
Climbing up a road where no one seems to go
Where no one seems to go

But I followed you right through
And you showed me that it's true

And I followed you right through
You just sat there and told me what to do
Darling, I've been scared, oh I've been scared but nothing scares me quite like you
Heaven's just a place, it's just a place, it's just a place if not for you
I'm sure you won't believe, you won't believe this poetry I speak for you
But down inside my brain, inside my brain, I know it's true

Oh-oooh
Oh-oooh
Oh-oooh
Ooooh ooh oh
